eGov Strategies joins Indianapolis Chamber's Green Business Initiative

(Indianapolis, IN – November 17, 2009) -- The Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce welcomes a new member to its Green Business Initiative (GBI). eGov Strategies was recently awarded "green" membership for its proactive engagement in environmentally-responsive and "green" business operations.

eGov Strategies submitted its application to the Green Business Initiative and the application was approved recently because the company scored high in its environmental and sustainable business practices.

"We are pleased to have been selected to participate in the Indianapolis Chamber's Green Business Initiative. As a business member in our community, we recognize environmentally sound practices within our operations and have discovered that it is not only good for our environment, but can provide cost-savings as well." said April Strano, Sales & Marketing Director, eGov Strategies.

"The Green Business Initiative demonstrates leadership advocacy and promotion of 'going green.' Our members are committed to a healthier Indianapolis and central Indiana region, and the Chamber is committed to promoting this work and encouraging more community and business involvement." said Jean Farison, Manager of Business Advocacy for the Indianapolis Chamber. "We welcome eGov Strategies to our growing list of Green Business Initiative members.

About the Green Business Initiative

The mission of the Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce's Green Business Initiative is to promote the interest of businesses that are committed and engaged in environmentally responsible operations and practices, also known as "green" business practices. Through the Green Business Initiative, the Chamber continues to educate and help grow a green Indianapolis and central Indiana. ## About eGov Strategies eGov Strategies was founded in 1999 by co-owners and partners Ken Barlow and Alan Pysz. In 1996 the partners launched IndyGov.org, the award-winning website for the City of Indianapolis-Marion County. Expanding their vision for assisting government entities, the team left Indianapolis-Marion County and now serves municipalities, state & federal agencies, and non-profits across the country with web-based online services.

About the Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce

Founded in 1890 by Colonel Eli Lilly and a group of Indianapolis business leaders, the Greater Indianapolis Chamber of Commerce is the voice of the central Indiana business community. Today, with a membership of more than 4,000 businesses, the Indianapolis Chamber is still a voice of progress and improvement, bringing together businesses for a thriving community.
